Two leopards sighted at BEML campus

Mysuru, Dec.15 (MTY&BCT)- Two leopards are roaming around the sprawling BEML Factory premises and layout in city since the past three days, creating panic among residents.

Visuals of the two adult felines have been captured in CCTV cameras installed around the BEML campus at Koorgalli. Also, a few security men have filmed the two leopards.

The BEML campus has thick green surroundings and adjoins areas like Koorgalli, Belavadi and Kergalli that are dominated by green growth, making it an ideal place for leopards to take refuge and hunt dogs. This morning, BEML authorities have informed the Forest Department about the sightings.

Following this, Deputy Conservator of Forests (Wildlife) Alexander and DCF Dr. K.C. Prashanth Kumar have asked RFO Devaraj to place a cage with a bait to trap the felines. Department sources told Star of Mysore that the cages will be placed this evening.

Forest officials said that the leopards could have come in search of food from the outskirts of the city that are dominated by thick grass, a perfect place for leopards to hide. They said that the public need not panic as the leopards are ten times afraid as humans are and they are very shy animals who come to urban habitats in search of food under the cover of darkness.

Meanwhile, experts say that large scale unscientific dumping of animal waste on the outskirts of the city was attracting stray dogs.

Leopards come in search of dogs, its favourite meal, and sometimes enter localities close to the forest area.

ANOTHER WEIGHT LOSS PLAN: The Parliament on Tuesday organised a lecture on "Effortless weight loss and diabetes prevention" for members. An advisory to MPs said that it was in "consonance with the Fit India programme." The MPs were addressed by Dr. J.V. Dixit, who highlighted "treatment/techniques for effortless weight loss, obesity, diabetes, anaemia and migraine," the advisory said. Some members who attended the lecture including Bharatiya Janata Party's C.R. Patil said they have benefitted from Dixit's "two-meals-a-day diet plan." Dixit's diet plan is quite popular in Maharashtra and quite the rage on social media but it has also faced criticism from experts that it is not supported by scientific evidence. At an event last year, Nationalist Congress Party's Supriya Sule had said all Maharashtrian weddings had a time slot during dinner for those who followed the Dixit diet plan.

Russian girls go crazy for bizarre wavy lips

Moscow: Called 'devil lips', or 'octopus lips', a cosmetic procedure that allegedly involves inserting filler into the edge of the upper lip to give it a wavy look is getting a lot of attention on Instagram these days.

No one knows exactly when and where this unusual beauty trend originated, but some sources claim that the procedure was pioneered by Russian plastic surgeon Emelian Braude. One thing's for sure, though, the unusual lip contouring technique has been raising eyebrows on social media, especially in Russia, where it's supposedly the most popular. But before you pick up the phone and call your favorite plastic surgeon about the devil lips procedure, you should know that no one is yet clear if it actually exists. Some plastic surgeons say that getting this wavy contour through lip fillers alone is impossible, and attempting to to do can be very dangerous.

Dating ad seeks match for man's lonesome duck

Blue Hill: There's no Tinder for waterfowl, but that didn't stop a Maine bird owner from trying to find a match for a duck. One of Chris Morris' ducks, Yellow Duck, lost its mate to a hungry bobcat a couple of weeks ago at Morris' yard in Blue Hill. Morris, a 31-year-old special education teacher, drew up a singles ad for Yellow Duck and placed it on a community bulletin board at a local grocery store.

The ad declares: "Duck seeking duck. Lonesome runner duck seeks companion. Partner recently deceased." It also includes an email address dedicated to the dating search and states, "serious replies only." Farm owner Sadie Greene might have just the duck to mend Yellow Duck's broken heart. Greene and Morris are arranging a meeting for the ducks.

Malingers: Do not fake your hearing ability just for financial aid

Sir,

Nowadays malingering (faking hearing ability for financial assistance) cases are more in the Audiology Clinic. All India Institute of Speech and Hearing (AIISH), Mysuru, is one of the Nodal Centres to give hearing disability certificate.

On an average in a week, 11 of 70 cases (15%) fake their hearing status who seek for hearing disability certificate. This letter is to make them aware about hearing evaluation that we conduct at our clinic identifies true hearing ability.

According to Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016, eligibility to avail concession/ benefit from the hearing disability certificate is provided to individuals who have permanent hearing loss greater or equal to 60 dB HL (decibels Hearing Level) in the better ear. To avail hearing disability certificate, a hearing evaluation has to be performed on patient who seeks for it.

Those hearing impaired individuals whose hearing disability in a better ear ranges from 60% and above get a monitory benefit/ concessions and apply for job under hearing impaired quota.

To obtain these benefits, a few hearing impaired individuals are faking to have more problem in their hearing ability. In our clinic, we administer behavioural tests to assess their hearing ability. Behavioural tests are those which require patient's active participation to assess their hearing ability.

Unfortunately, those hearing impaired individuals who fake their hearing ability sets a loudness yardstick. That is, they respond only to a sufficiently loud sound. For such cases, we administer an objective test to identify true hearing ability. Objective tests tell us their genuine hearing ability even though client fakes their hearing ability just for financial assistance.

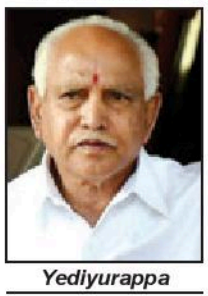
9 pm to 6 am Bandipur night traffic ban

Kerala team to meet Karnataka CM soon



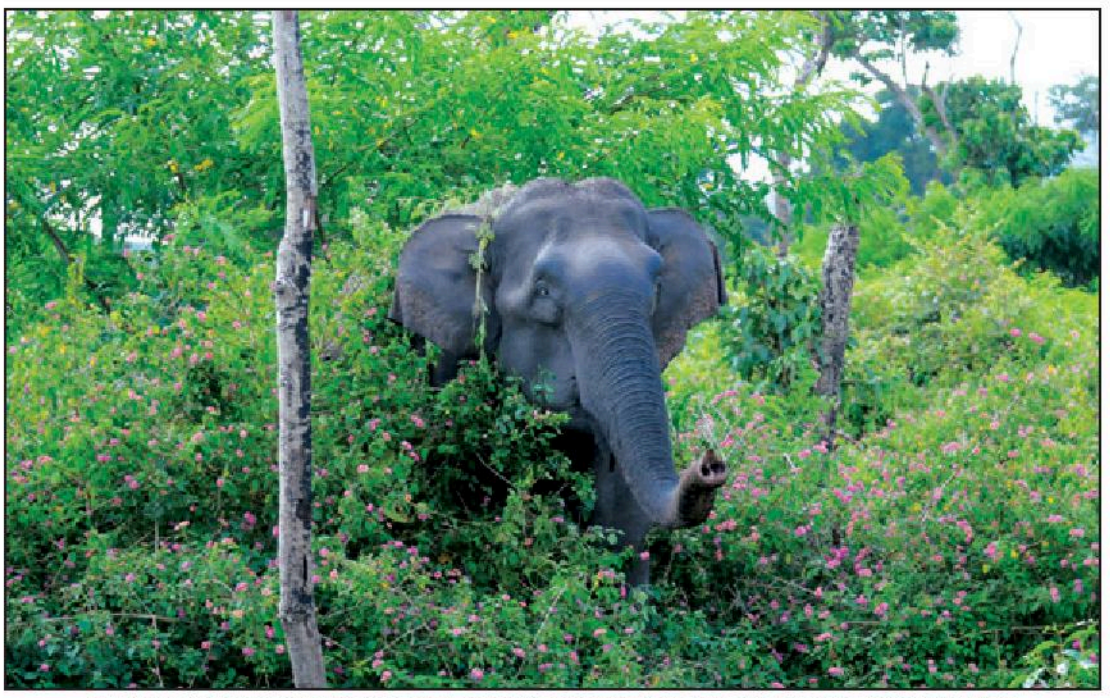
Yediyurappa

Bengaluru, Dec.15 (UNI)- With the Karnataka Government putting its foot down and stating that it will not lift the ban on night traffic in the core tiger habitat of Bandipur National Park, a high-level delegation from Kerala is likely to call upon Karnataka Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa to discuss the issue.

An all-party delegation will meet Union Ministers too in this regard and Kerala Transport Minister A.K. Saseendran also directed Principal Secretaries of the Kerala Forest and Public Works Departments to prepare an affidavit to be submitted at the Supreme Court on the matter.

Kerala has been demanding Karnataka to not fully shut down NH-766, which passes through Bandipur Tiger Reserve connecting Wayanad and Mysuru. Kerala has asked for allowing a limited number of transport bus services to both sides during the night.

The Kerala Government had been insisting that the existing night traffic ban be bypassed on a 25-km stretch of National Highway 766 by cutting through a core part of the forest with an elevated corridor. The Supreme Court had also upheld this night traffic ban. Currently, only a limited number of Government-run buses and emergency vehicles are allowed to operate during the restricted period of 9 pm to 6 am on the stretch.



A wild elephant seen amidst Lantana growth on a safari track inside Bandipur National Park.

Further, Kerala has also opposed developing an alternative route through NH-275 and SH-90 (via Kutta - Gonikoppa) citing that it would also require massive deforestation and land acquisition. Meanwhile, there were allegations that a strong lobby from Kerala was pushing for the alternative route as it would provide better connectivity to the one-year-old Kannur International Airport.

"A lobby of politicians and businessmen of Kannur district is said to be lobbying for the alternative route as it will improve connectivity to places like Kodagu and Mysuru from Kannur," said a leader of an action council fighting against traffic restrictions along NH-766.

Earlier in March 2018, the National Tiger Conservation Authority had advised the Centre against moving ahead with the project as it could have adverse effects on the forest habitat, where over a hundred tigers currently reside.

The existing traffic ban on traffic flow after dark came into effect in 2009 while the Karnataka High Court was hearing a case pertaining to road kill. At least 215 animals were killed by oncoming traffic between 2004 and 2007.

Wildlife First alleges illegal works taken up at Nagarahole Forest

Gonikoppal (Kodagu), Dec.15 (KS)- Wildlife First President K.M. Chinnappa has alleged that illegal works are taken up at Nagarahole Reserve Forest.

He has stated that earth-moving machines were being used to level the sides of the safari route at Nagarahole Reserve Forest, which was in gross violation of the Wildlife Act.

Addressing the students during the slide show programme on wildlife conservation at Lions First Grade College in Gonikoppal, he said that the Forest officials, keeping aside the Wildlife Act and other Forest Rules were levelling either sides of the safari route and Virajpet-Mysuru Main Road at Nagarahole and Anechowcur Wildlife Zones by 30 mts using the earth-moving machines to bring down trees and plants.

Only works pertaining to 'Fire lines' could be taken up at reserve forests as per the Wildlife Act, he added.

K.M. Chinnappa

Stating that grassland was necessary to animals like deer and other herbivorous wild animals, he regretted that grassland and plants were being levelled using earth-moving machines depriving the animals of their food. Chinnappa said that a complaint against Hunsur Conservator of Forests has been given through Wildlife First to the Chief Conservator of Forests and stopped the works.

Continuing, he said that Hunsur officials were constructing a Check Dam with Rs.1 crore grant from a Bengaluru-based company, which is also against the Wildlife Act and added that there is enough water for the wild animals at Nagarahole besides stating if fire is prevented during summer, the ground water level would increase.

Stating that fire incidents in Bandipur and Nagarahole Forests were increasing as the Forest Department were not taking strict action against those setting fire in forests, he said that this was resulting in wild animals straying out of forests and entering human habitats.

Lions First Grade College Principal Pavithra Chinnappa, Lions High School Head Mistress A.B. Akkamma and others were present.

"Dharmaprakasha D. Banumaiah is a role model for students, traders"

Dignitaries seen releasing the souvenir marking the centenary celebrations of D. Banumaiah Educational Institutions in city on Wednesday last.

Mysuru, Dec.15- Maintaining that Mysuru is known for transparent traders and businessmen, Chamundeshwari MLA and former Minister G.T. Devegowda (GTD) said that the traders have been following the ideals set by late Dharmaprakasha D. Banumaiah.

He was speaking at the centenary celebrations of D. Banumaiah Educational Institutions in the city on Wednesday last.

Stating that being an associate of Mysuru APMC he knew much about the city traders, GTD said he was delighted to note that the educational institution founded by D. Banumaiah has successfully completed 100 years.

Noting that it is a matter of pride that former Supreme Court Judge Venkataramaiah was a product of this Institution, he said that many great personalities have studied in this school. Pointing out that Mahatma Gandhi paid a visit to this institution during his visit to Mysuru, the MLA called upon the students to draw inspiration from great personalities like D.Banumaiah and thus make their life a contented one.

Recalling his tenure as Higher Education Minister in the previous coalition Government, he said that during his visit to Hubballi, he was surprised to know that Professors were getting a very handsome salary of Rs.1 lakh to Rs. 2 lakh for just a couple of hours of teaching in a day, while school teachers were being paid much less for hours of duty in a day. Lauding Banumaiah for founding the Institution, which has benefited thousands of poor and economically backward children, he described Banumaiah as a 'Mahapurusha' who donated his entire property for the institution.

Earlier, KR MLA S.A. Ramdas, who spoke after inaugurating the centenary celebrations by garlanding the bust of the Founder in the institution premises on Sayyaji Rao Road, said that Banumaiah, a great Philanthropist that he was, built the Institution with great care in order to provide education for the poor and weaker sections of society.

Calling upon the students to make the centenary celebrations a memorable one, Ramdas exhorted the students to ensure 100 percent results in the exams, which would be a fitting tribute to the great educationist.

Recalling the days when he was a student of Banumaiah College, he said that his student days here helped him in developing leadership qualities,which catapulted him to politics.

On the occasion, Hosadurga Kunchitiga Mahasamsthana Mutt Seer Sri Shanthaveera Swamiji released the souvenir marking the centenary celebrations.

The valedictory was held later in the evening. Former MLA Vasu, speaking at the valedictory, said that it is not as easy as one thinks to run a big educational institution for 100 years.

Observing that running an educational institution successfully in a highly competitive environment is a big task, Vasu, who is also the Chairman of Vidya Vikas Educational Trust, said that changing policies of the Governments posed a major challenge for educational institutions.

Noting that he himself, Jagannath, husband of Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath, Deputy Mayor Shafi Ahmed, former Mayors T.B.Chikkanna and H.N. Srikantaiah, MLA S.R. Mahesh and many other political leaders are alumni of this prestigious institution, Vasu said that the journey of Banumaiah, who came to Mysuru from Madhugiri in Tumakuru district over a century ago, itself makes an interesting reading. Apart from providing education to lakhs of students, Banumaiah has also made big contributions for the benefit of the society at large, he pointed out.

Vasu was felicitated on the occasion. Koratagere Kunchitiga Mutt Seer Hanumantha Swamiji, MLA L. Nagendra, MLC Marithibbegowda, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath, Banumaiah Educational Institutions Chairman Dr. V.B. Jayadeva, Vice-President Dr. K.N. Thimmaiah, Hon.Secretary S.J. He was speaking as the chief guest during the inauguration of the three-day 7th Bio-processing India Conference organised by Central Food Technological Research Institute (CFTRI) at its premises here yesterday.

He pointed out that a good awareness and maintenance is necessary in all sectors to bring down losses. He contended that the waste generated in food production should be technically monitored.

He sought usefulness to people from any research by creating awareness among farmers who are deprived of good education. He added that National Aerospace Laboratories (NAL), a wing of CSIR, is developing a 19-sector indigenous light transport aircraft and envisages to come out with a 70-sector aircraft in the future.

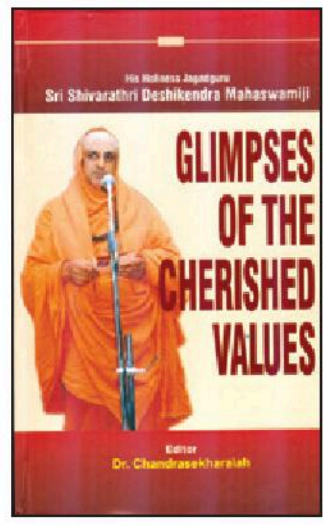
Booktalk

Thus spake Suttur Seer

Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji



Writing about the publication, a collection of speeches by Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, its Editor has rightly chosen to inform the readers that the speeches are heart-to-heart talks understood, felt and liked by the lay and the learned. Those who had the fortune of listening to the Swamiji as he spoke on various occasions are sure to agree with the words of the Editor in the four-page introduction to the publication, namely:

Title	:	Glimpses of The Cherished Values
Author	:	Dr. Chandrasekharaiah
Pages	:	594
Price	:	Rs. 400
Year	:	2019
Publisher	:	Jagadguru Sri Shivarathreeshwara Granthamale

"He is at his best when he speaks in Kannada. He captures the attention of the people, he surprises them with a wisecrack. His inventive mind and a keen sense of observation look for situations around him to talk about and make people laugh. But his speeches are unequivocally formal, dignified and solemn befitting the occasion. All the speeches found in this volume stand testimony to show his vast, extensive, deep and comprehensive knowledge on a wide range of subjects and issues reflecting his vision of the kind of education he desires us to impart to our young people, so that the future of the country is secured and safe."

The 109 speeches on diverse topics also document the phases of the nation's growth and development as well as the role of Suttur Mutt in different periods, although mentioned in passing has this message from the Swamiji:

"The achievements, if any, are but our humble thoughts or words transformed into deeds — selfless, detached and morally upright."

The speeches included in the compilation are arranged in chronological order between 1998 and 2016, each with a catchy heading and the footnote indicating the occasion on which the Swamiji spoke.

Readers have the comfort of choosing the script of the speech according to their interest, although they are sure to be drawn to every one of the speeches. In the words of Sri Siddeshwara Swamiji of Jnana Yogashrama, Vijayapura, the blessings of Suttur Seer are like roses containing fragrance of spirituality, nectar of religion and beauty of fine feelings. The gems of quotes from various texts of many centuries vintage attributed to sages and luminaries of a distant past included in the speeches reflect the values enshrined in them, to be cherished by every citizen in the path of righteousness.

Speaking on the occasion of Foundation Day of Mysuru-based Central Food Technological Research Institute (CFTRI) in Sept. 2014, Swamiji showered praise on the achievements of the Institute, expressed the hope that it would in the years to come strive more and more to associate itself with community services, given its vast pool of infrastructure, potential and human resource (Speech No. 99).

The Editor richly deserves the gratitude of readers at large for the pains taken in bringing out the publication in the class of a companion for life. The value of the Swamiji's message in every speech included in the volume cannot be measured or expressed in words.

The saffron party accused the former Congress chief of practising "Muslim appeasement politics".

"The more appropriate name for Rahul Gandhi is Rahul Jinnah," said BJP spokesperson G.V.L. Narasimha Rao. "Your Muslim appeasement politics and mindset makes you a worthy legatee of Mohammad Ali Jinnah, not Savarkar." The saffron party's Information Technology Cell Chief Amit Malviya said that Gandhi could never be 'Rahul Savarkar' as the Hindutva ideologue was "a national icon".

Pharmacists demand ban on online medicine sale

A delegation of Mysuru City and District Retail Chemists Association comprising Association office-bearers Mukund Peshwa, S. Devaraj, M. Raju, C.K. Arun and S. Mahesh, along with Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha presenting the memorandum to Union Health Minister B. Harshavardhan in New Delhi recently.

Mysuru, Dec.15- Even as Pharmacists held a nationwide demonstration in protest against online sale of medicines recently, a delegation of Mysuru City and District Retail Chemists Association met Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha and they together met Union Health Minister B. Harshavardhan and Union Minister for Chemicals & Fertilizers D.V. Sadananda Gowda and submitted a memorandum appealing the government to abolish online sale of medicines.

The memorandum said that online sale of medicine is not transparent and lacked professionalism.

Maintaining that in online sale of medicines, the stipulated rules and regulations may be violated to a great extent, it said unhealthy competition and unethical practices may encourage the sale of duplicate medicines.

Further, the patients are deprived of counselling and may lead to the dominance of drug mafia. Pointing out that there were approximately 8 to 9 lakh retail dealers selling medicines for decades, the memorandum said that the workers and families who constitute nearly one crore population will be pushed to the streets.

Also, online sale of medicine is against the noble intention of the Government and it may destabilise the social and economic framework of the country the memorandum explained.

After receiving the memorandum, the Ministers told the delegation that the interests and lives of lakhs of people involved in Pharma sales will be protected.

WORD OF THE DAY

Copacetic

Pronunciation: koh-puh-set-ik, -see-tik.

Meaning: Fine; completely satisfactory; OK.
Origin: Copacetic first appears in the generation before World War II, in 1919 to be exact. It is a thoroughly American piece of slang, and all the citations of the word come from American writers. Perhaps foreigners avoided copacetic because of all its variant spellings, which include copa, copasetic, copasetty, copesette(e), copissettic, copus, kopacetic, kopasetic, kopasetee.... Many slang terms have no reliable etymology, and copacetic is within that happy group. Some of the more fanciful, not to say outrageous or just plain nutty etymologies for copacetic include; 1) Chinook jargon copasenee "everything is satisfactory (along the waterways of Washington State)"; 2) the excruciating phrase "the cop is on the settee" (that is, he's not paying attention), which transmogrified into copacetic and was supposedly used by American gangsters; or 3) an Italian word, but unknown in standard Italian or in any of its many dialects. Bill "Bojangles" Robinson claimed to have coined copacetic (not likely), but he did popularize copacetic in his vaudeville acts, radio programs, and movies he made with Shirley Temple in the 1930s.

THE ODD WORD

Cacaesthesia

Morbid sensation.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Camera cannot lie

Meaning: Literal meaning.
Origin: Printed photographs began to be available to general public around mid 19th century. When this phrase was coined, which appears to be just a few years later, the view that a photograph was a faithful representation of a scene, in a way that a subjective painting could never be, was a reasonable one. After all, the image that falls on photographic plate is precisely what the camera is pointing at. Phrases like 'photographic memory' supported the view of photographs as precise and infallible records. Many earliest references to the phrase describe people's inability to believe that they look like their photographic portraits. Nevertheless, it may well be the phrase was used ironically from the start. Whether or not people believed the notion of photographic veracity then, they certainly don't now. We know that the ubiquitous photographic images that fill our visual world are constructs rather than absolute truth. Even early manipulative techniques during the developing process could alter images to suit photographer's intentions. Photography very soon became more an art form and less a recording process. Now, with digital formats, we are hard pressed to tell reality from fiction.

QUOTE BOX

When words become unclear, I shall focus with photographs. When images become inadequate, I shall be content with silence. — Ansel Adams
